

Leave her more than your memory.

EPC

ESTATE PLANNING COUNCIL OF SEATTLE

A non-profit association of estate planning professionals promoting the highest quality of estate planning services:

- Attorneys
- Certified Public Accountants
- Charitable Planned Giving Officers
- Chartered Life Underwriters/Chartered Financial Consultants
- Trust Officers

To find an estate planning professional and to receive educational information about estate planning, contact the Estate Planning Council of Seattle at 206-285-4066 or www.epcseattle.org

LEAVE A LEGACY® OF WESTERN WASHINGTON

The EPC endorses LEAVE A LEGACY® of Western Washington, a program that promotes charitable giving through estate planning. Contact LEAVE A LEGACY® of Western Washington at 1-800-683-0090 or www.leavelegacy.org

“Creating an estate plan is a way to remember and provide for those we care about, carry on our values, and help the community. Implementing the plan is a way to achieve peace of mind by leaving very little to chance.”

-- KRISTI MATHISEN

Shareholder with Bader Martin, P.S. in Seattle and President of the Estate Planning Council of Seattle.

The Estate Planning Council of Seattle offers the following publications:

(Subject to availability)

- “Estate Planning”
- “The Fiduciary’s Handbook”
- “Dealing with the Death of a Loved One”

Name _____

Address _____

City _____

State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____

E-mail _____

To order up to one complimentary copy of each publication, check the ones you want, fill in the information, and mail to:

EPC-Seattle, P.O. Box 21609
Seattle, WA, 98111-3609